

Ms. Manasa R

Manasa after completing her technical education, joined Uday associates as a trainee and raised to her present level of junior engineer.

She has proved to be a fast learner and has capability to independently handle architectural designing, site co-ordination, material planning and management.

She has acquired strong abilities to be a back office technical service engineer. She has exhibited the skill sets to handle multi-tasking as per the site needs.